Merchant: today and tomorrow, and named batteries

The pickup list shows only today and tomorrow, soonest first. Drones are numbered by make across all shops (DJI-001, GT-001), controllers CTR-001 and so on in the order added, and every battery has a short name, B1, B2, B3 and so on, numbered separately for each shop to match its sticker. Every handover, swap and return says exactly which battery to give or take back. Customers never see the names.

QR scans through to paid, and where people drop off

The image shows a mobile application interface for an admin dashboard. At the top, there's a header bar with a hamburger menu icon on the left and a 'Log out' button on the right. Below the header, the main content area is divided into three large, rounded rectangular cards. The first card is titled 'Partners' and lists 'Properties, commission rates, QR codes'. The second card is titled 'Products' and lists 'Rental product lines, phone compatibility'. The third card is titled 'Rental Packages' and lists 'Durations, pricing, deposits'. Below these cards, there's a section titled 'SETTINGS' in all caps. Under 'SETTINGS', there are two more rounded rectangular cards. The first is titled 'Staff' and lists 'Add and manage staff, merchant and admin accounts'. The second is titled 'Branding' and lists 'Upload the logo used across the site'. At the bottom of the screen, there's a dark grey bar with a white circle containing the number '43' on the left, and the text 'Admin home (part 3 of 3)' on the right.

Drone Sales (part 1 of 6)

Drone revenue only (the old locker sales pages are untouched): money by source, month, shop, drone and payback, busiest days and hours, rental length, model, 1 or 2 batteries, online or walk-in, returns and repeat customers. Range buttons at the top.

Where the money comes from

Rental fees include the battery choice. Deposit kept is only what was actually taken for damaged or lost items.

Rental fees — RM24 (22%)

Battery swaps — RM5 (5%)

Deposit kept (damage or loss) — RM80 (73%)
